

SIIC ACADEMIC CREDIT: Summary

Three-day Workshop:

- $250.00 for 2 quarter credits (equals 1.3 semester credits) from Portland State University
- Register and pay ICI at one of the dinner information meetings during the Summer Institute
- Course title for all is: ELP 510/410; “Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication”
- A choice of 1 short assignment due Sept. 15, 2011
- 15-to-20-page paper due no later than November 1, 2011

Five-day Workshop:

- $305.00 for 3 quarter credits (equals 2 semester credits) from Portland State University (PSU)
- Register and pay ICI at one of the dinner information meetings during the Summer Institute
- Course title for all is: ELP 510/410; “Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication”
- A choice of 2 short assignments due Sept. 15, 2011
- 20-to-25-page paper due no later than November 1, 2011

FAQ:

1. Can I register after SIIC?

Yes, contact Elsa Wallace (elsaw@intercultural.org) to arrange for a late registration.

2. When will I get my grade?

The grades will be posted by mid-December.

3. How do I get my grade?

We will provide you with guidelines for requesting your transcript from PSU.

4. Can I transfer these credits to other programs?

This is the decision of the participant’s college or university. MAIR students can use SIIC courses as electives.

5. Can I request an extension on the assignments deadlines?

No